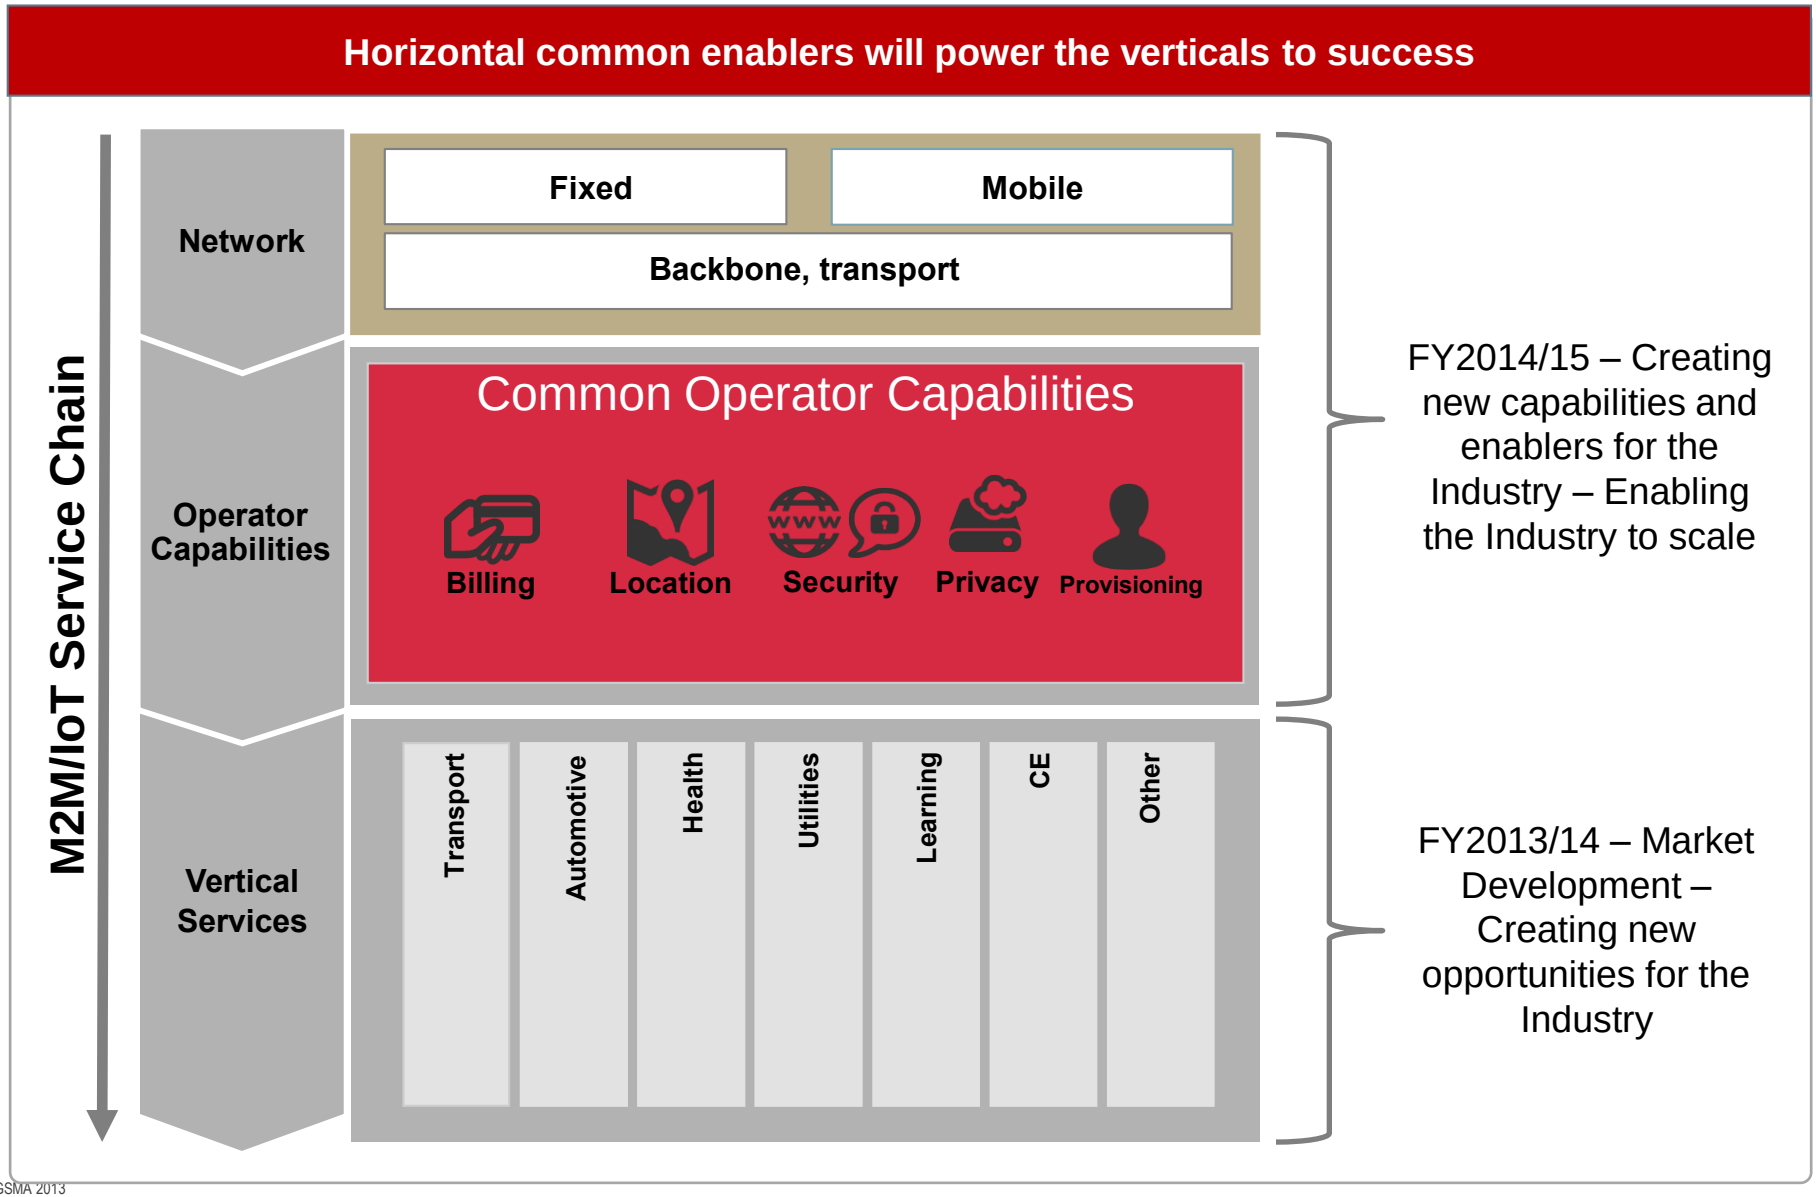
Connected Living

New Connected Living Programme: How mEducation will continue contributing

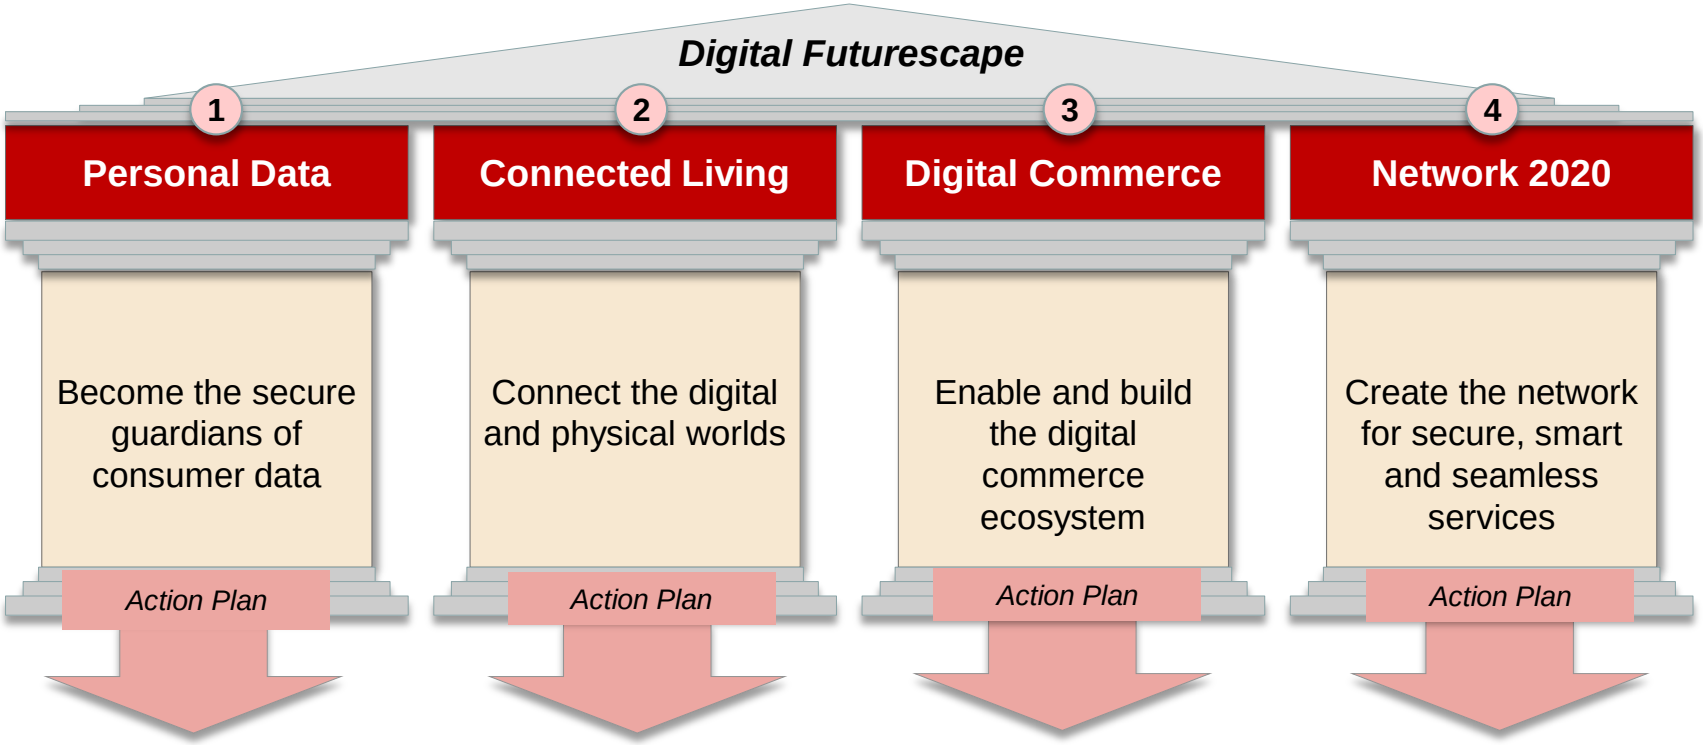
Jose Antonio Aranda, mEducation Workshop, Montevideo, May14

Relationship between the Old and New CL Scope



GSMA 2013

The GSMA Vision 2020 Framework



- Develop a web-based and SIM-based digital authentication solution

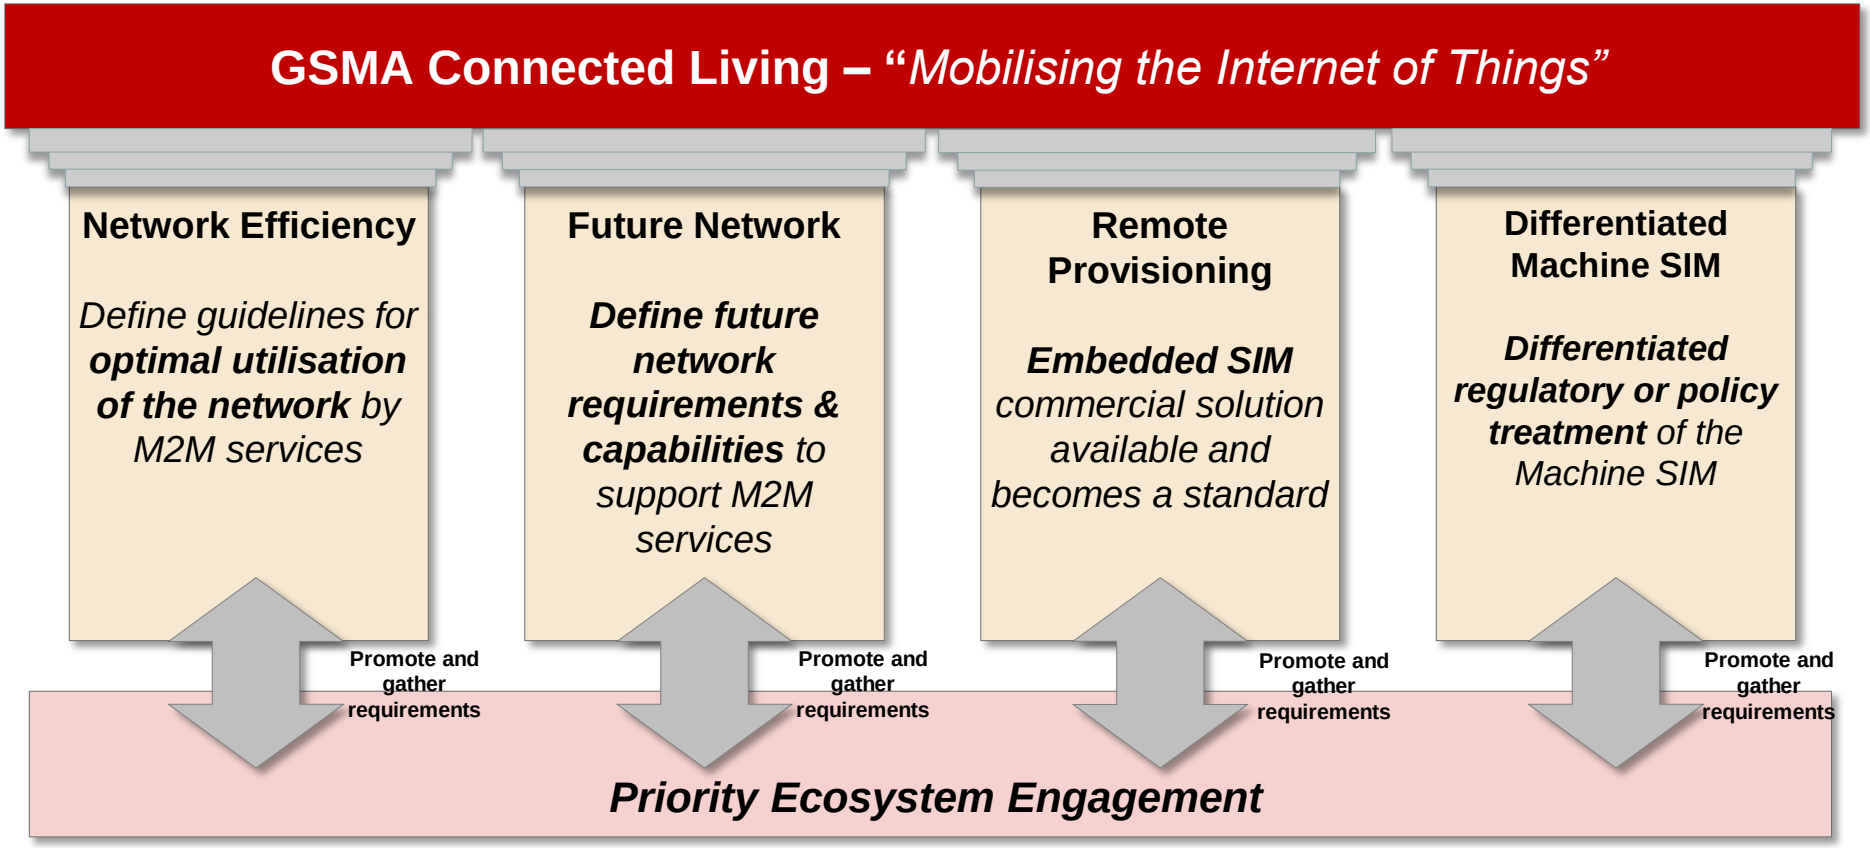
- Develop Machine SIM (MIM) to enable the Internet of Things
- Define Internet of Things network requirements

- Create standardised B2B wallet backend
- Develop Mobile Money interoperability

- Make Operator IP Communications work as a native service
- Develop and implement technical standard for Quality of Service (QoS)

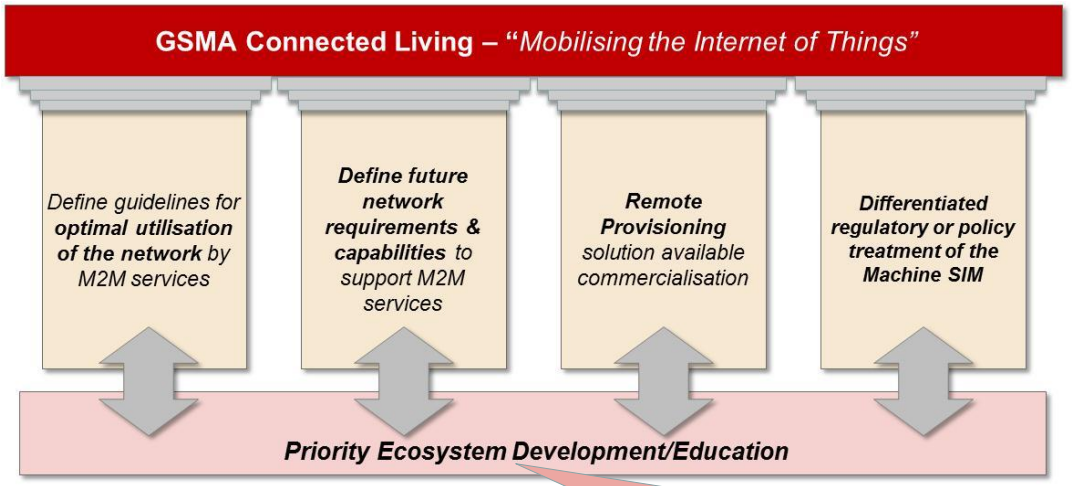
GSMA 2013

Connected Living Programme Structure 2014/15



GSMA 2013

Ecosystem Engagement Scope



Ecosystem Engagement:

- Listening to the voice of the Customer.
- Priority areas:
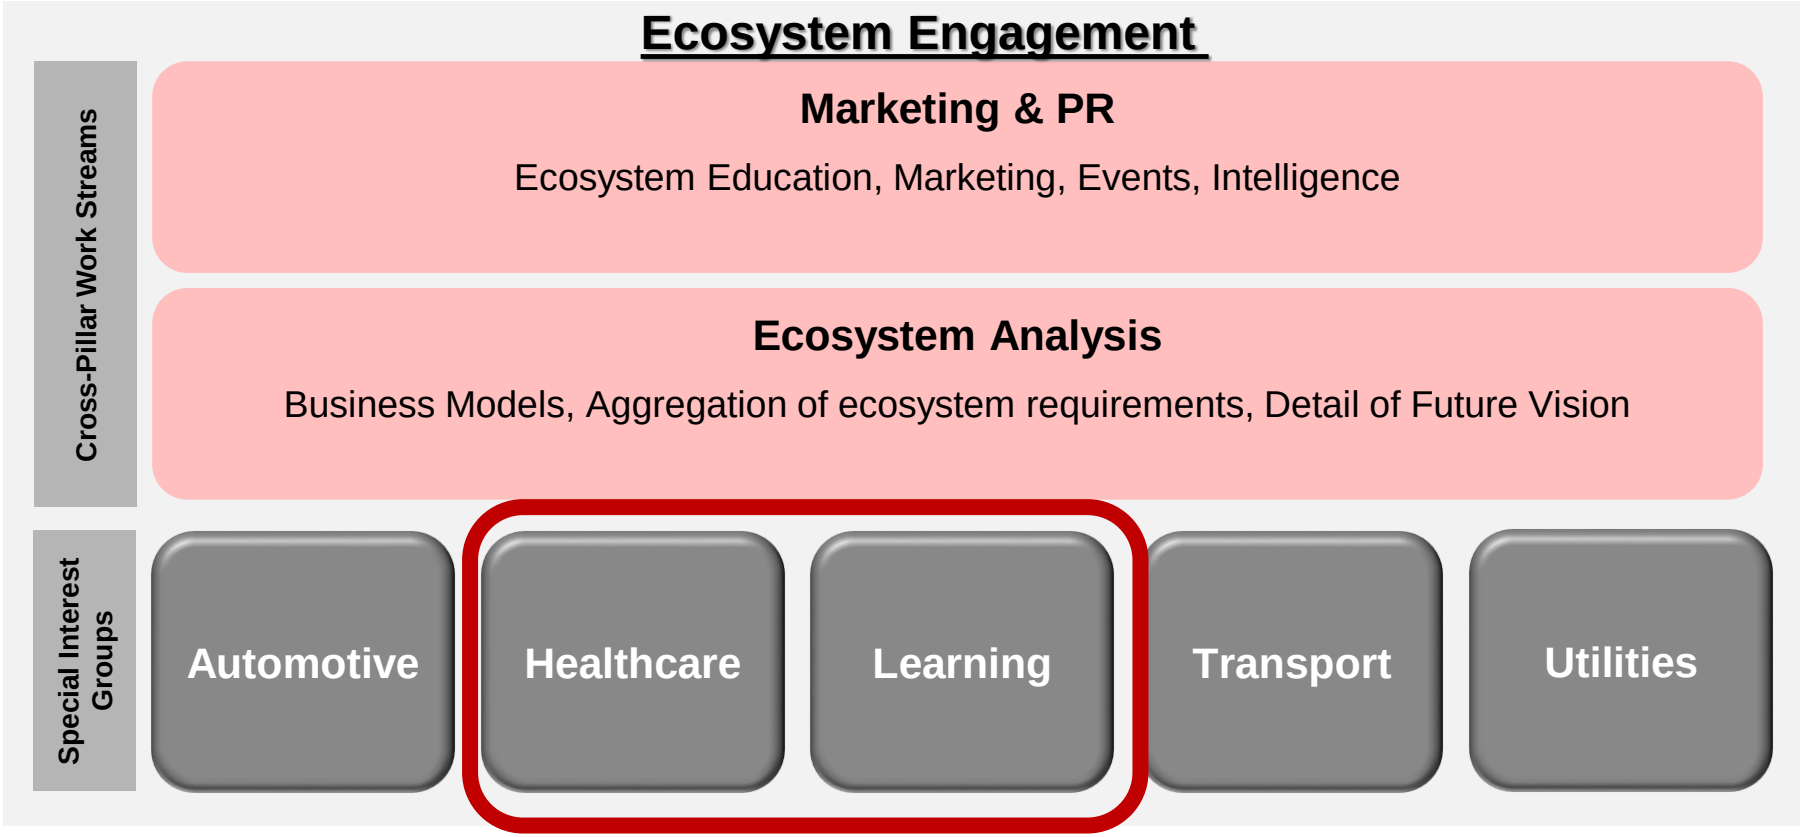
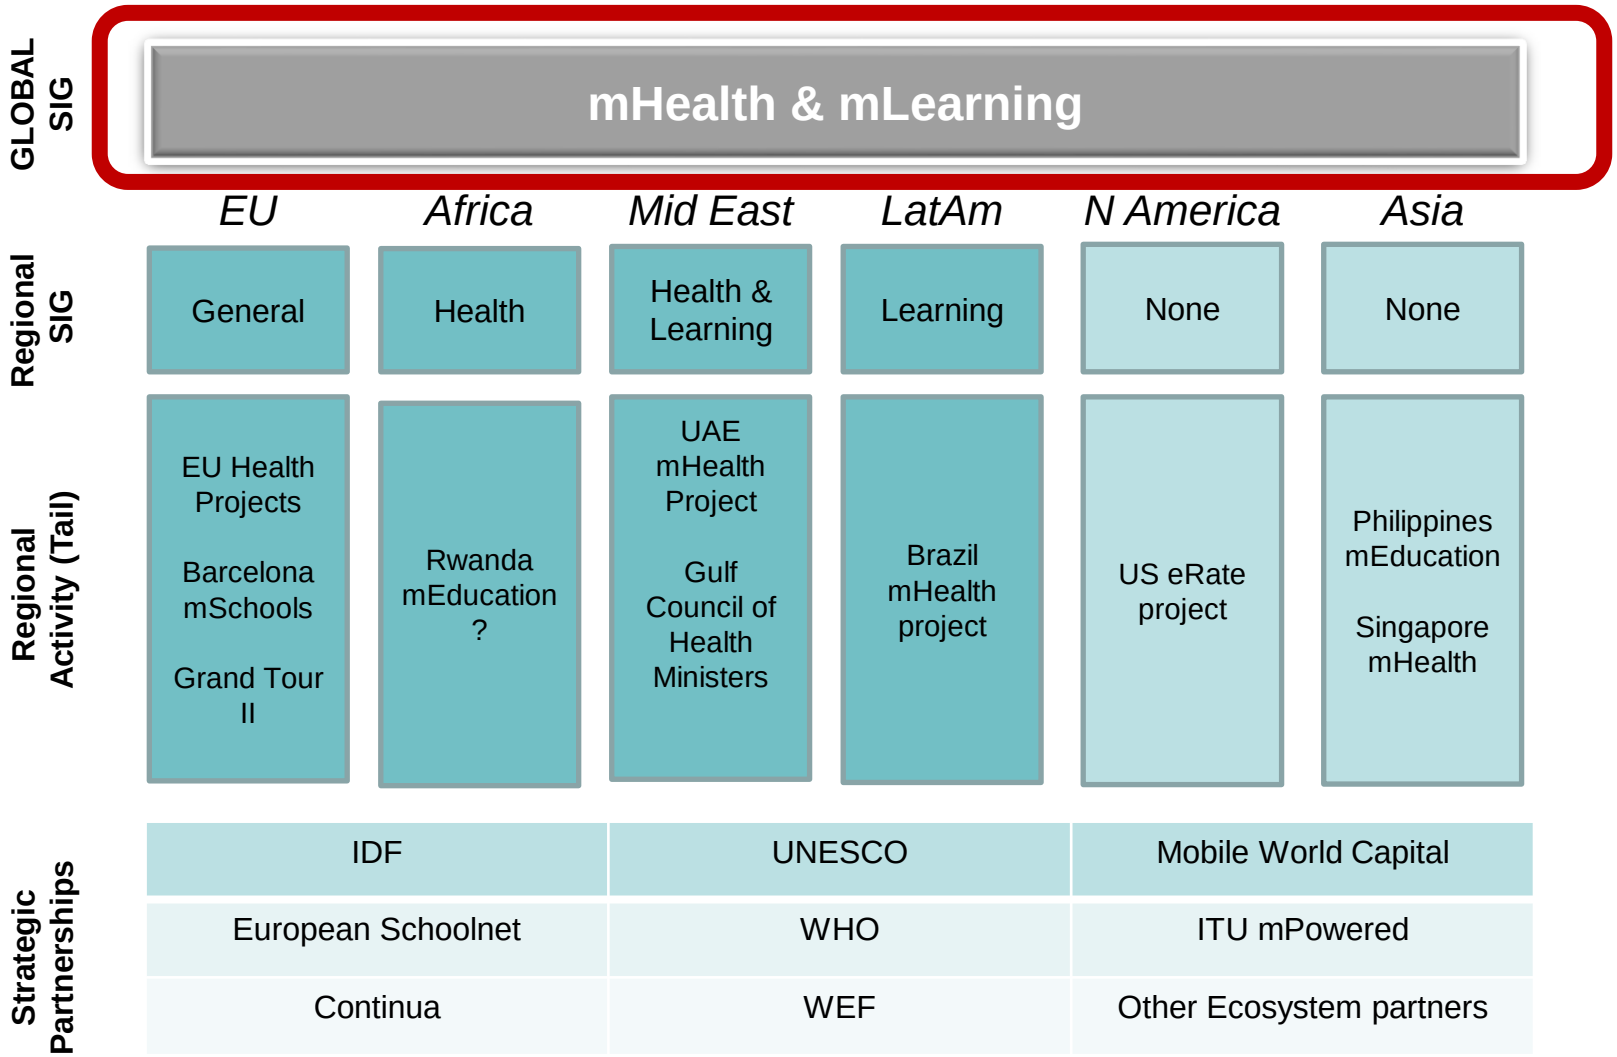
  - Training on network efficiency
  - Understanding of requirements for future network
  - Adoption of enablers
  - Promotion of mobile technology

Ecosystem engagement structure



Engagement Strategy: mLearning SIG



Activities in Latin America: LatAm SIG

Regional SIG and Activities

Latin America mEducation SIG

Scope

An informal community with an interest in advancing mobile education, skills development and employment whose members agree to cooperate to effect sustainable mEducation solutions. From time to time, members may also advocate or lobby on a particular issue as it relates to mobile education

Aims

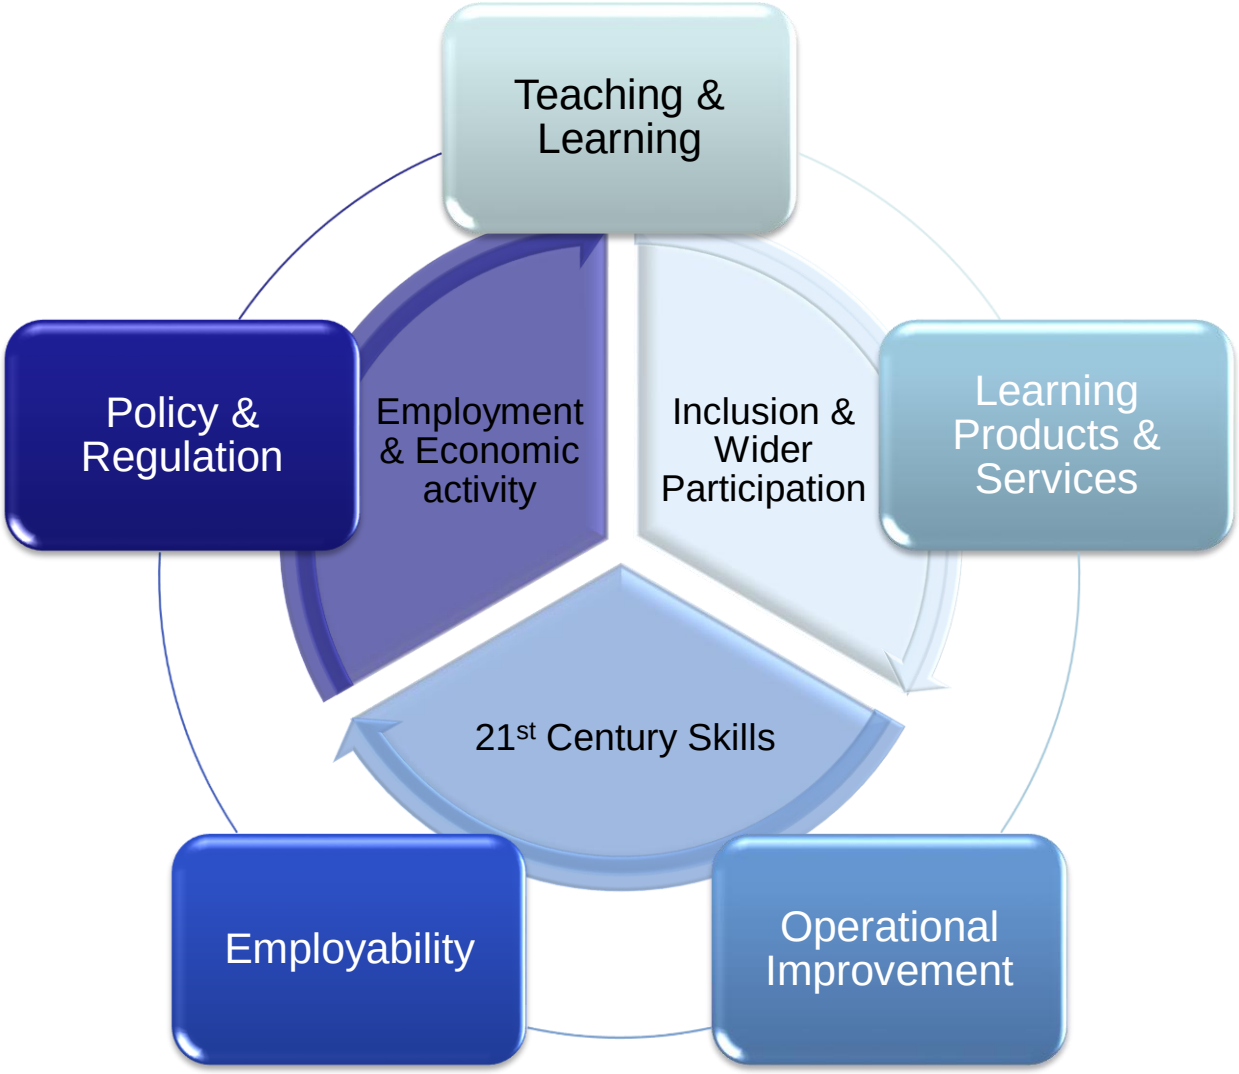
Support knowledge sharing	Topics and Results	Role of GSMA
Collaboration and deepening of networks to advance the field of mobile education for the benefit of citizens and members customers	The headline education topics to be examined by the mSIGs is suggested in the slide "mEducation SIG"	Convene, facilitate and provide coordination for the mSIGs. When appropriate, introduce expert resources and share research and good practices

Activities

Identifying barriers to deployment of mEducation services at regional & national levels	Contributing to the development of strategies to address these barriers	Promoting at regional / national level the role of mobile and mobile operators in education and training
Contributing to the development of published guidance for governments with the aim of informing their developing and future digital education strategies	Promoting the inclusion of mobile in Regional/national digital and education initiatives	Collaborate in areas such as proving concept of mEducation solutions or support partnerships to build propositions

GSMA 2013

Regional Engagement: mEducation SIG



GSMA 2013

mEducation

Questions?

How mEducation will continue contributing

Jose Antonio Aranda, GSMA Technology Director, Latin America