Since its formation in October last year, the APAC 5G Industry Community has received strong support and interests from all the contributors, members, and APAC stakeholders. You can find the latest update and other contributors news in the spotlight section. GSMA recently publishes an update whitepaper on Mobile IoT efficiency and a report about the metaverse impact on the digital future. Read more details below.

APAC 5G Industry Community spotlight

The community has already grown to 500+ organizations with strong interests in 5G. Julian Gorman, Head of APAC, GSMA and Sean Xu, CMO, Huawei's Carrier Business Group for the APAC region, explained the background of the APAC 5G Industry Community and its good impact and value for the region during an interview at MWC Barcelona 2022.
