

Decentralised Identity

Identity Hangout
21 March 2019

Welcome!

If you have any questions for us, please reach out to Emily Heaphy on the BlueJeans chat function and we will go through them during the session.

Andrew Tobin

Andrew Tobin is responsible for Evernym's activities in the EMEA region, and head of business development globally. He is a key member of the team that created the world's first self-sovereign identity network, Sovrin, and open sourced its code as Hyperledger Indy. Andy spent 11 years at Telefonica where he ran all non-voice technology, built a mobile bank, and launched the iPhone in the UK. Prior to that he was responsible for e-and m-Commerce at Logica, where he also built the world's first m-Commerce server way back in 1999.
