

Digital skills training materials for mobile internet use

Learner handout

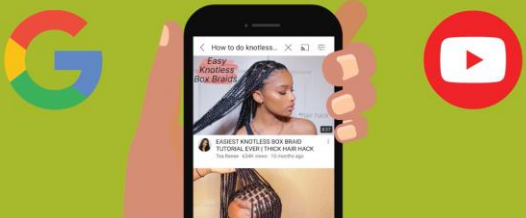

Ghana - English

BUILDING SKILLS TO BOOST YOUR BUSINESS

How can I search for information on the internet?

How do I look through search results to find useful information?

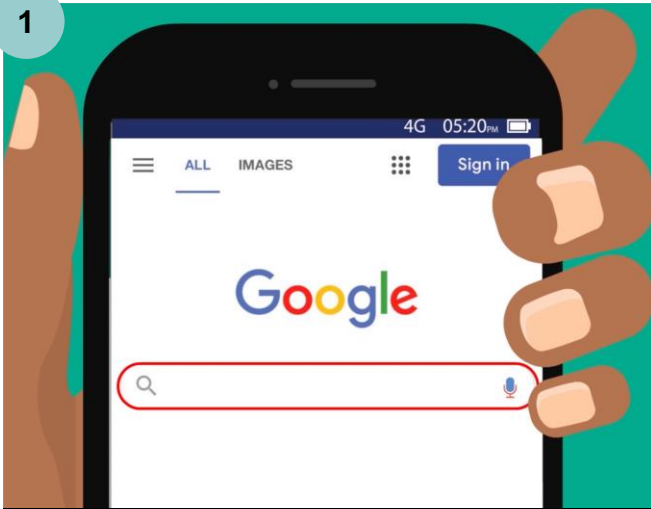

How can I download photos and videos that I find on the internet?

How do I know if the information I find on the internet is reliable?

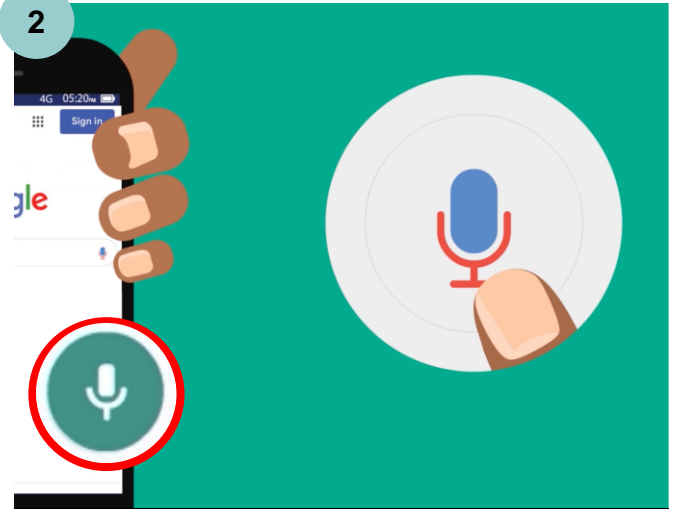

How can I search for information on the internet?

1

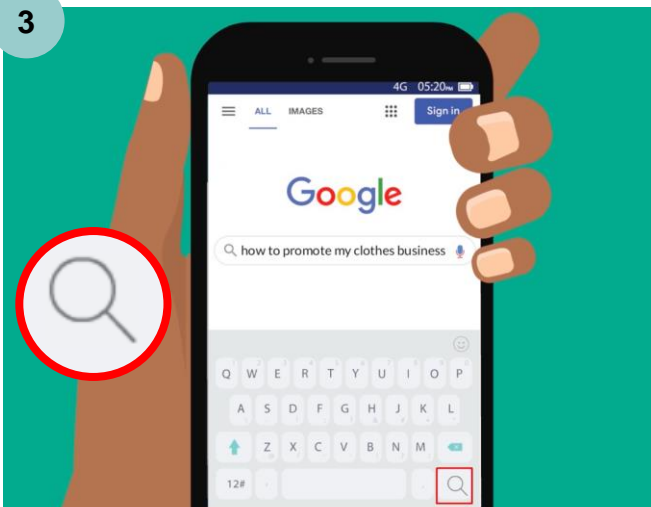

Press the search bar.

2

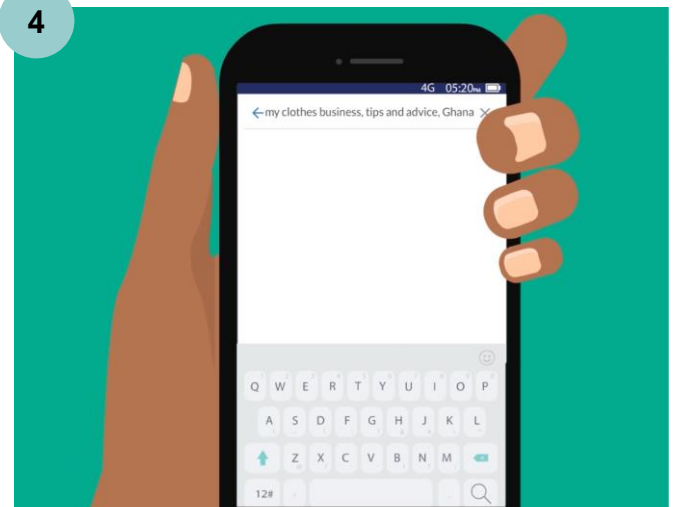

Press and hold the microphone. Say what you're searching for.

3

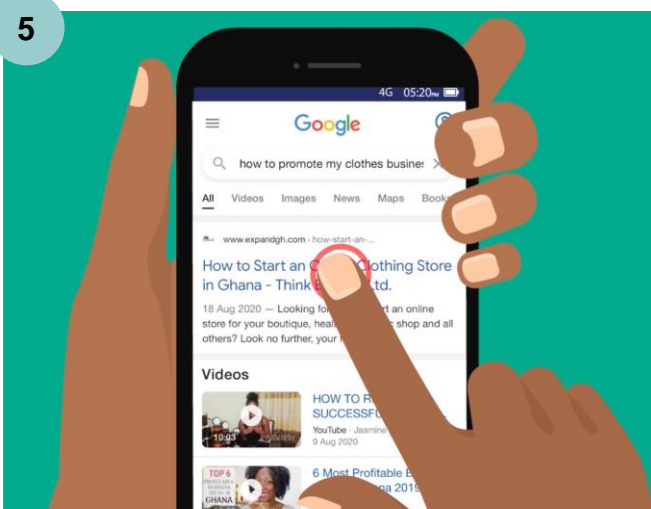

Press the magnifying glass button to search.

4

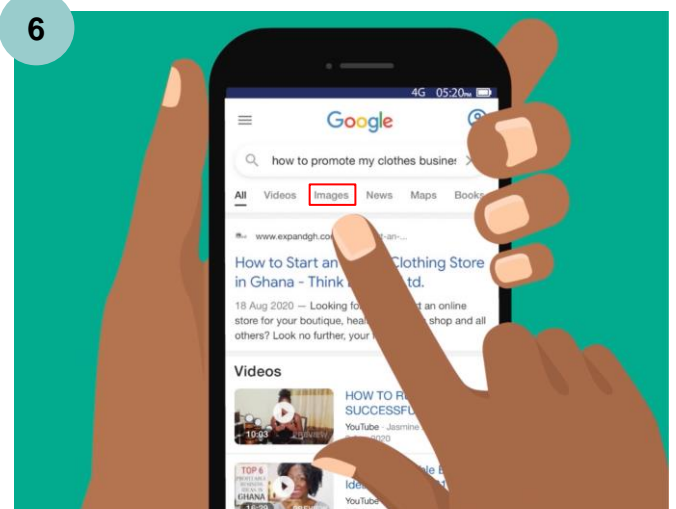

Add more words to your search.

5

Look through what Google has found for you.

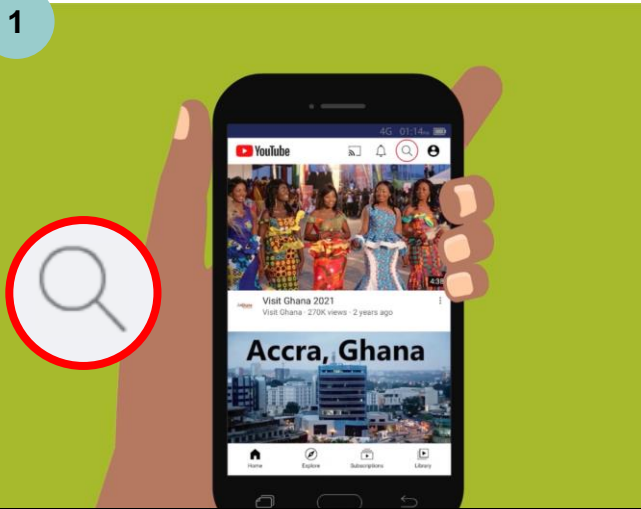

6

Click on the word "Images" to only see pictures.

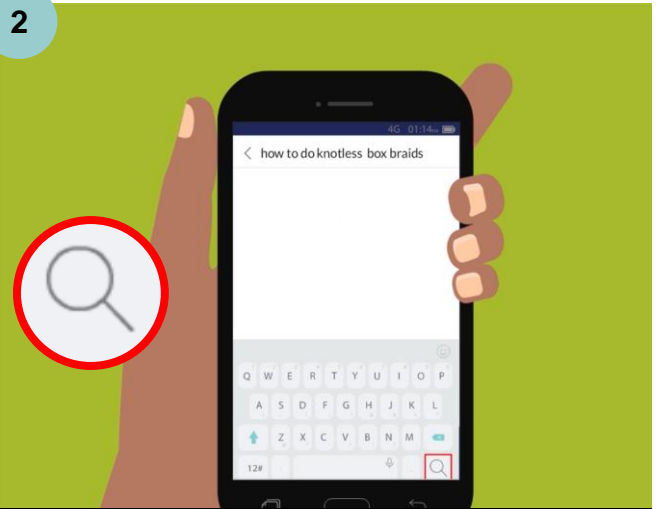

How do I look through search results to find useful information?

1

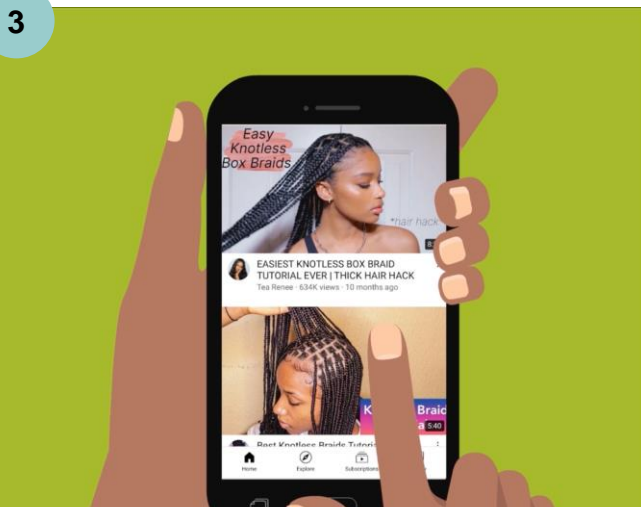

Press on the magnifying glass at the top.

2

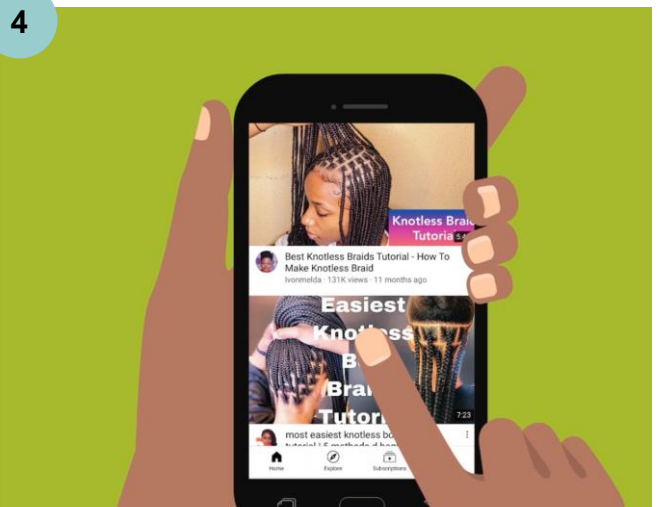

Type or say what you're searching for.

3

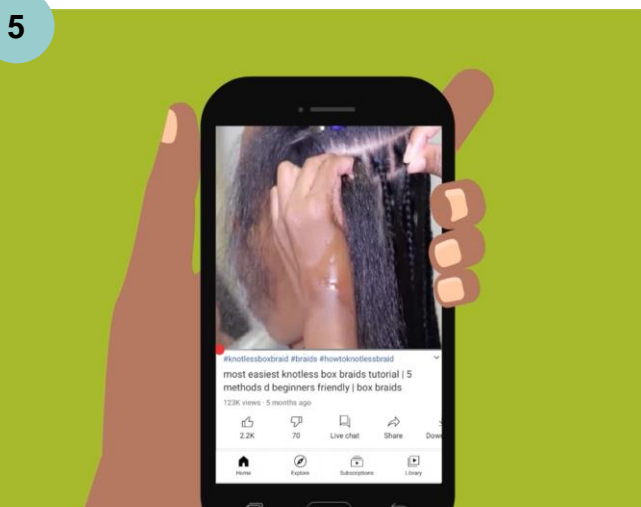

Look through the videos that YouTube has found.

4

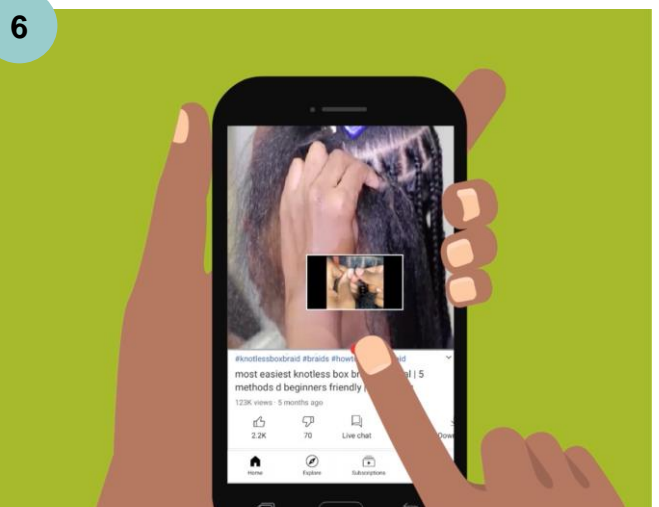

Press on a video to open it.

5

Start watching the video.

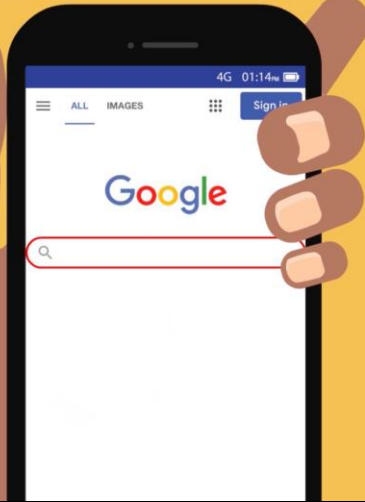

6

Scroll through parts of the video to see if you like it.

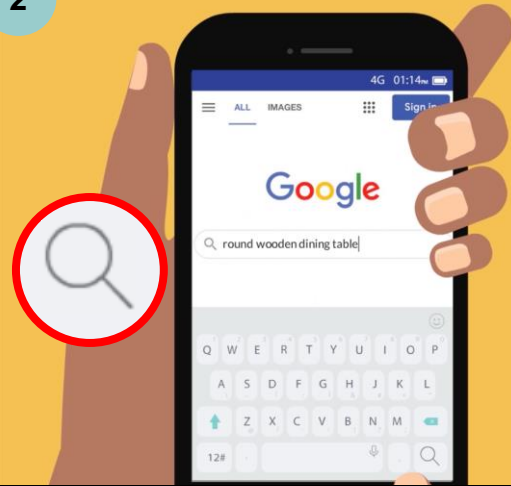

How can I download photos and videos that I find on the internet?

1

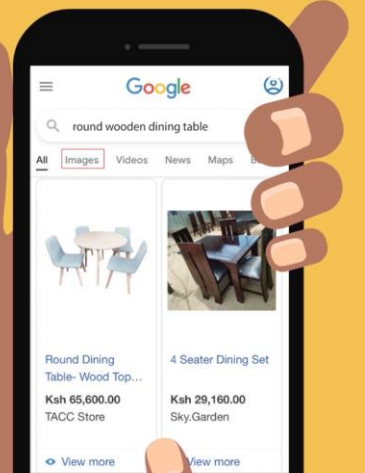

Press the search bar.

2

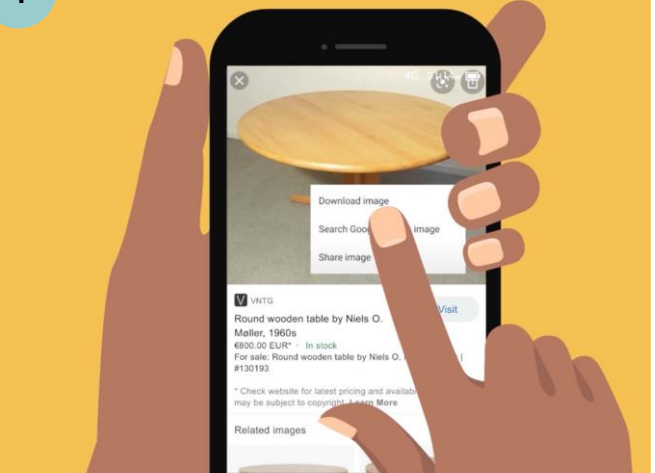

Type or say what you're searching for.

3

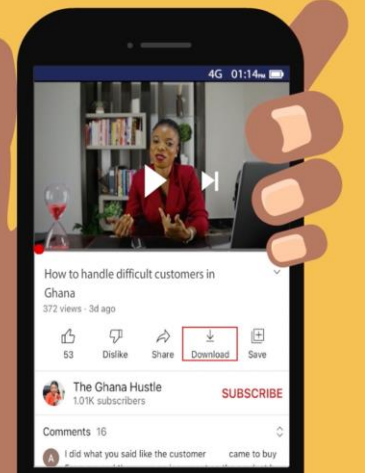

Find a picture you like, then press down on it.

4

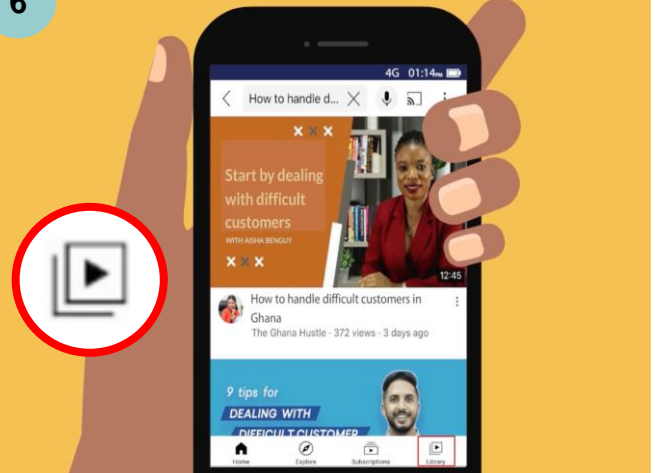

Press "Download image" to save the picture in your gallery.

5

On YouTube, press "Download", then select "Low" quality.

6

Press "Library" to see your downloaded videos.

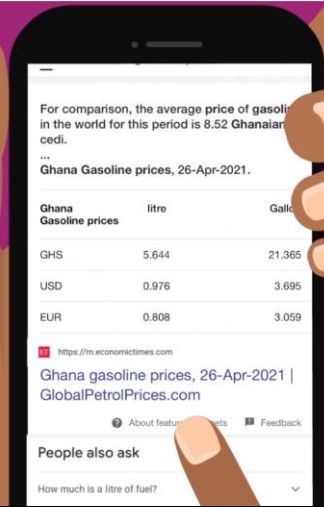

How do I know if the information I find on the internet is reliable?

1

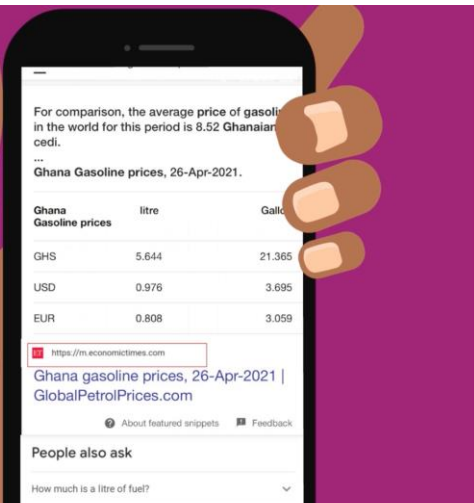

Type or say what you're searching for.

2

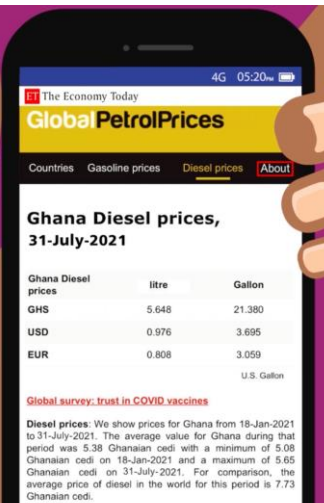

Browse through search results.

3

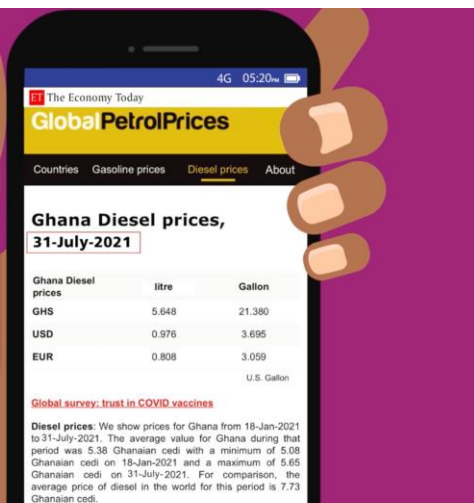

Look for well-known, trusted names.

4

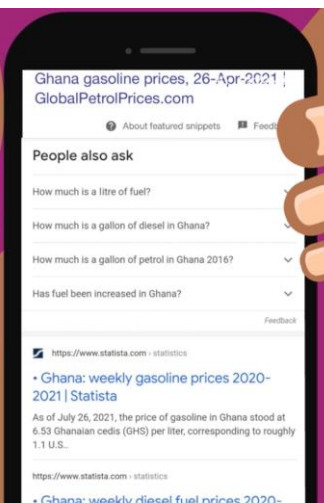

Read the "About" section to learn more.

5

Check the date to ensure the information is current.

6

Look at different websites to learn more.